OTTENHEIM.

Gardening is the chief work of the day.

James Bros. are on the eve of moving their saw mill to Faulkner Dishon's farm on the Stanford and Ottenheim pike.

Ed Ballard, Thomas Collier and Jesse Kidd, formerly of this place, but now of Somerset, were here to see their best girls.

Ephraim James lost a valuable milk cow last week. R. G. Collier lost a nice sucking mule colt. Wm. Anderson sold a family horse to W. T. White for a good price.

Henry Davis, who has been seriously ill with peritonitis, is convalescent. Jebb Chandler, who was successfully operated on for appendicitis several weeks ago, was able to call and spend a few hours with his friend, Henry Davis, Tuesday. John Wentzel, the Ottenheim merchant, who has been seriously ill, is much improved. Mrs. John McKinney is still confined to her bed with grip.

Too Much Love.

Milton C. Schenck, of Chicago, in his defense for abandonment of his wife, told Justice Mahony that he was compelled to leave home because of the unremitting caresses of a wife who loved him too much and believed in a perpetual honeymoon.

"She would call me up on the telephone, and we would have conversation like this:

"Is this my ownie boyie?"

"Yes, dear."

"Come home and kiss your little wife," she would command, "and, judge, I just had to do it."

"She would call me home suddenly, taking me from my work. When I arrived, fearing that some accident had befallen her, she would meet me at the door. Then she would say: 'Why didn't you kiss me honey-bunch good-bye this morning?'"

"It was a case of either give up work and live on love or give up love and eat. And judge I couldn't live on love," concluded Milton.

"That's a good kind of a wife to have," said the court, "and I am going to hold you for the grand jury."

COMMA COSTS $2,000,000.—An interesting story is told of an inserted comma which cost the United States Government $2,000,000. When the United States Congress was drafting the tariff bill, it enumerated in one section the articles to be admitted on the free list. Among these were "all foreign fruit-plants." The copying clerk, in his superior wisdom, omitted the hyphen and inserted a comma after "fruit," so that the clause read, "all foreign fruit, plants, etc." The mistake could not be rectified for about a year, and during this time all oranges, lemons, bananas, grapes and other foreign fruits were admitted free of duty, with a loss to the Government of at least $2,000,000 for that year.

Rheumatic Pains Quickly Relieved.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Oil Magnate—I was.

Friend—Awfully unpleasant experience, eh?

Oil Magnate—Oh, I don't know. It had its good points. They didn't complain that my money was tainted.

"No," said Senator Shugar somewhat indignantly, "I cannot lend myself to any such scheme."

"But, Senator," interposed the lobbyist, "we don't want you to lend yourself. You'll be well paid for your trouble in the matter."

Sambo is quoted as saying that he really doesn't know what has become of the chickens in his neighborhood, but he suspects they've entered the ministry. —Hartford Herald.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers by it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

The death some months ago of George Washington Todd, tramp and wanderer, revealed that he was worth $60,000, which relatives in this State and Canada are now fighting for, says a Rochester, Ind., dispatch. Some time before he died Mattie Mattice, of Onondaga Hill, sheltered the man. While in her house he accidentally killed her canary, and immediately wrote her a note for $5,000. The woman kept it more for a joke than anything else, but when the existence of Todd's wealth became known presented it against his estate. Surrogate Benton upheld the note as valid. Other notes are held by people who befriended Todd.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, Mr. E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, druggists, guarantee them at 50 cents.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? So the Graded School will have a home and when paid for, the tax can and will be reduced. Thanks of the entire community are due to the efficient board of trustees.
